For Your Pleasure

August 6 - September 4, 2010
Reception for the artists: Sunday, August 8, 4 - 6 p.m.

Los Angeles, CA—CB1 Gallery proudly presents the work of ten gallery artists, all of whom will be showing in solo exhibitions at the gallery over the next two years, in a group exhibition entitled, For Your Pleasure. These ten artists work in media ranging from paintings and drawings to photography, from sculpture to installation. The exhibition opens on August 6, 2010 and closes on September 4, 2010. A reception for the artists will be held at the gallery on Sunday, August 8, 2010, 4 - 6 p.m.

The artists in For Your Pleasure include Los Angeles based artists Martin Durazo, Chris Oatey, HK Zamani and Tameka Norris, who recently transplanted from LA to New Haven, CT. The gallery is also pleased to present work by several New York artists whose work has not been seen in LA galleries in recent years--Chuck Agro, Larry Mantello, Mira Schor, Susan Silas and Amy Yoes. Plus, Belgian painter Hilde Overbergh will be showing new paintings following her successful participation in "The Story of O" at Otis College of Art and Design this past spring.

CB1 Gallery is a contemporary art gallery located in historic downtown Los Angeles. The gallery exhibits and promotes an intellectually demanding yet aesthetically pleasing group of younger artists and mid-career artists who cross disciplines and political perspectives. Gallery hours are Wednesday - Sunday, Noon - 6:00 p.m. (Thursday and Friday until 7:30 p.m.) or by appointment.

For more information about the artists or the exhibition contact Clyde Beswick, Gallery Director at 213-806-7889 or clyde@cb1gallery.com. www.cb1gallery.com
